KIMBERLEY GODDARD

Director

Year on YWCA Edmonton Board - First

Kimberley Goddard completed her degree in law after attaining an undergraduate degree in economics. She has worked as a Crown Prosecutor with the Alberta Justice Department for the last 9 years. She has previously been on the board of directors with the Edmonton Women's Shelter, and was President of the Alberta Crown Attorneys' Association. She also served as an officer in the Royal Canadian Naval Reserve serving aboard Edmonton's HMCS Nonsuch, and is a proud member of the Royal Canadian Legion. As a single mother, Kimberley values the contributions that the YWCA brings to providing opportunities to the women of Edmonton, and is honoured to participate in an organization devoted to the empowerment of women of all backgrounds.
