

INROADS

Janet-Sue Hamilton

A Warden of the Edmonton Institution for Women, Janet-Sue Hamilton is truly a pioneer in her field. At the time of her appointment in 1999, the idea of a female warden drew harsh skepticism. Janet's strength of character sustained her in an environment fraught with discrimination and barriers. Janet's dignity, humility, resolve and sense of humour earned her respect and loyalty from the individuals she leads. This respect was evidenced by her appointment as the first female Warden at Edmonton Institution - A men's maximum-security facility. As a Warden, Janet is a strong role model who demonstrates a tireless commitment to women's issues and restorative justice. Paving the way for others, Janet's legacy at the Edmonton Institution for Women is a now predominantly female Senior Management Team.

