KATE ROWE

Secretary

Year on YWCA Edmonton Board - Third

Kate Rowe is a 27 year old currently working as a policy analyst on contract with the Provincial Government. She graduated in June of 2008 with a Bachelor of Social Work degree from the University of Calgary, after already achieving a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from the University of Alberta in 2004.

Kate has recent practicum experience through the City of Edmonton Community Services Department and the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit at the Royal Alexandra Hospital. Kate has also volunteered for Kids Kottage, the University of Alberta Sexual Assault Centre, and Habitat for Humanity in Quebec. Her interests include the rights of Aboriginal persons and of persons with disabilities. Kate is honoured to be working for an organization committed to empowering young women and supporting all women throughout the lifespan.
