

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Lynda Steele

Lynda Steele is a passionate supporter of the Alberta Council of Women's Shelters. Lynda's courage in being a strong voice against domestic violence has encouraged many individuals who are being abused to make a difficult decision, and reach out for help. In 2007, Lynda published her book, Laptop Diaries, with 100% of the sales proceeds going to support Edmonton area shelters. In spring of 2008, Lynda was pleased to hand over a cheque to local shelters for just under $90,000. While Lynda is very busy with the constant demands of her public profession as a TV anchor and is involved with many worthy causes, she is always eager to assist where she can in promoting and generously supporting the work of local women's shelters.
