

EDUCATION

Pat Baker

Described as patient, enthusiastic, creative and humble, Pat Baker has spent the last 35 years passionately teaching not only physical and health education but respect, determination, teamwork and the graciousness to applaud the efforts of others. As an exemplary role model, Pat has been both coach and mentor for multiple sports teams at Harry Ainley High School and in the Edmonton community. Pat has inspired hundreds of young people to follow their dreams and always do their best. Currently, Pat is coaching the Junior Women's Volleyball team, and continues to be an integral member of the Harry Ainley team. Pat is a previous nominee for the Excellence in Teaching awards, and a recipient of the ASSAA Coaching Sportsmanship award.

